Special Issue of John Lennon

John Lennon Abandons Family and Fans for Ugly Foreign Girlfriend!

Recent investigations have found that our beloved Beatle, John Lennon, has found a new love in his life, her name is Yoko Ono. This woman, seven years John's senior, has dug her vicious claws into John and is rapidly changing him into a man that we no longer love.

The "nice boy" image that we have all come to appreciate in John has been shattered by his recent decision to abandon his wife and children to marry Yoko Ono. Some say that John is trying to fill a void in his life after the deaths of Stuart, Julia, and Brian Epstein. Others say that John is simply being stupid. You be the judge. Is this unpolished, rude foreigner trying to steal our John from us? Has he changed for ever? Will this affect his music? Only time will tell. As fans, we can only beg for the John we know and love to return to us quickly.
